Jumped on a Pitchfork.
Rock Hill Herald: Mr. W. A. Watson, president of the Millport Manufacturing company, of Fort Mill, received painful injuries Tuesday by jumping from his stable loft upon a pitchfork concealed in a pile of hay. Mr. Watson, after throwing some hay from the loft for his cow, pitched the fork into the hay. By some means the fork turned upright, and when he jumped down the prongs pierced him in the hips, inflicting severe injuries. When visited by Mr. Fride Ratterer, Thursday, Mr. Watson was suffering great pain from his wounds. It will be several days before he will be out of bed.

Ebenezer Memorial Association.
Rock Hill Herald: The ladies of Ebenezer township met Monday at the residence of Mrs. A. B. Fowell for the purpose of reorganizing the Ebenezer Memorial Association. A large attendance was present and much enthusiasm shown. All expressed regret for the loss of their former president, Mrs. Avery, who recently moved to Baltimore. Before discussing methods of making the association more complete in its designs, an election was entered into. Mrs. A. B. Fowell was chosen president; Mrs. A. A. Barron, Mrs. J. H. Matthews, Mrs. W. S. Miller, Mrs. Wm. Choate and Mrs. W. S. Garrison, vice presidents; Mrs. J. H. Miller, secretary; Mrs. J. C. Wilborn, treasurer; Mrs. John A. Steele, musical director.

The Alliance Rally.
The Columbia Register had the date of President Wilborn's Alliance rally fixed on the 13th of March, and The State had it the 16th. Noticing the discrepancy, THE ENQUIRER referred to the calendar and found that the 13th was on Sunday, and the 16th on Wednesday. Accordingly, as between the two dates, it was calculated that the 16th was most likely to be correct, and that was used. But President Wilborn had sent a message to the effect that both dates, as published, were wrong. He had furnished the copy to the daily papers and the date of the rally was plainly written "12th," which comes on Saturday. Saturday, March 12, therefore, is the day upon which President Wilborn desires the sub-Alliances of the state to assemble at their respective places of meeting and discuss the situation.

He Is In Jail.
Hampton Mobley, the Negro who attacked Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White in their house at Leslie station, last week, is now in the county jail. He tried to compromise the matter through messengers to the Leslie people; but they would not compromise, and deeming it advisable to move further away, he went over to Lancaster, where he was arrested by Sheriff Clyburn. Sheriff Logan went down to Yorkville. He did not have very much to say; but until he got safely past Leslie station, he was a "scared Negro." There were quite a number of angry people at the station when the train went by, but they made no demonstration whatever, as they had made up their minds that the law should take its course. Mobley's offense, taking all the circumstances into consideration, was aggravating in the extreme, and the Leslie people are to be congratulated upon their having been able to restrain themselves.

UNDER ARMS.

Lake City People Apprehensive of Attack by Negroes.
The News and Courier, of Sunday, contains the following special from Lake City:

Considerable excitement prevailed among the citizens here last night. The report that the darkies in Kings-tree and surrounding country had organized and were coming to burn this town last night, created quite a sensation. The citizens got the wind of it about sundown, and in 15 minutes it was known throughout the entire community. By 10 o'clock 100 or more citizens had assembled in the waiting room and about the depot. Scranton, Cades and the country around for 10 miles were represented. The meeting was called to order and a company organized, with Mr. J. J. Morris, as captain. There were 50 in the company, armed with pistols, rifles and shotguns. They were divided into four detachments and each detachment was put on picket duty for two hours during the night. All the roads were well guarded until daylight. However, nothing occurred; but the reports which reached here did warrant some precaution being taken.

The facts are these: A colored girl in the employ of Mr. M. C. McClain, who lives in Kingstree, spent the night at a Negro's house. She says she saw him cleaning his gun, and heard him say that he was going to lend it to another darky, who was going with a mob to burn Lake City.

Willie Askins, the 14-year-old son of Major S. M. Askins, of Lake City, had a strange and oracular warning from the family's Negro cook.

The citizens of the town, in mass meeting assembled, about 150 strong, condemned in unmistakable terms the Baker postoffice tragedy.

The meeting being organized with Mr. C. M. Kelly, as chairman, and H. W. Ackerman, as secretary, Senator A. H. Williams offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, parties unknown to us did, on the night of February 21, commit one of the most disgraceful crimes ever perpetrated in any civilized community, in the killing of Postmaster Frazier B. Baker and his infant, and in the wounding of his wife and three children, and

Whereas, we feel it incumbent upon us, as law-abiding citizens, to denounce said act in the strongest terms and to let the good people of South Carolina and the nation at large know our attitude in reference to the terrible tragedy:

Be it resolved, That we deplore the crime committed in our community, and look upon it as an act of unprecedented cruelty.

2. That we ask the sympathy of the public instead of abuse, since it is a fact that lawless people live in every community, over whom law-abiding citizens have little or no control.

3. That we have always opposed, and now oppose, lawlessness of every kind, and hope that justice will speedily overtake the criminals in the Baker postoffice tragedy.

4. That a copy of this preamble and the resolutions be furnished The News and Courier, and our county papers, for publication.

The jury of inquest was held today. Coroner H. M. Burrows and Solicitor Wilson were present. Seven witnesses, five colored and two white, were examined.

The testimony of the darkies did not amount to anything. All they knew was that the house was fired, and the occupants shot.

Mr. W. T. Askins testified that some time between midnight and daylight he heard two squads of men, of about 30 each, going out in the opposite direction from the postoffice. They seemed to be in vehicles and on horseback.

Mr. J. J. Morris testified that between 9 and 10 o'clock he heard an unusual number of vehicles passing along the street in front of his residence.

The decision of the jury has been reserved to await new developments. They will meet again in about three weeks' time.

The following anonymous sensational letter has been received by Intendant C. M. Kelly, of this city:

CHICAGO, ILL., February 23, 1898.
To the Mayor of Lake City, S. C.
DEAR SIR—Having read an account in one of the morning papers of the lynching of the Negro postmaster, it compels me to fulfill my oath as president of this association. We, the members of the A. C. P. A. A., have resolved that on or about March 1, we will arrive in Lake City, S. C., about 100 strong, and armed to the teeth. We don't intend to spare man, woman or child till we avenge the murder of Baker and his babe.

The above letter was incorrectly worded and punctuated.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Nine Lives Lost.
Nine people were burned to death in a fire on Church street, Charleston, last Friday. They were Albert and Caswell O'Neal and seven members of the Knickenmeyer family, including the mother and an infant only a month old.

Mike Jenkins Volunteers.
M. J. Jenkins, a native of Yorkville, now commandant of Hogsett Military academy, at Danville, Ky., has written to Governor Ellerbe as follows: "Sir—Believing that the signs of the times point to a not distant war with Spain, and being a graduate of West Point and a native of South Carolina, who has had seven years' experience in the regular army on the frontier and six years as commandant of cadets in military schools, I have the honor to offer my services in a military capacity should the need of them arise. I am a son of General Jenkins, C. S. A., of South Carolina, killed in service of his state and the south, and feel that I have almost a hereditary right to be among the first should South Carolina find it necessary to send any of her sons to the field again. I have been a close student of the art of war since by graduation, and am of course well up in current tactics. I feel that I am capable of handling either a brigade or any minor tactical unit, and respectfully ask that this tender of service be placed on file for consideration in case the events now foreshadowed should mature. I have the honor to be your excellency's most obedient servant."

The End At Hand.
Columbia Register, Monday. Attorney General Barber leaves for Washington this week to defend the dispensary law before the United States supreme court, in case of Vandercork vs. Vance. This case will be heard on March 7th. It was hoped that the case would be heard before the meeting of the general assembly of this state adjourned, but the supreme court had other matters before it, and by common consent the hearing was set for the date mentioned. This case is an appeal from the decision of United States Circuit Judge Chas. H. Simon-ton in the original case, a suit for damages on the part of Mr. Vandercork, of California, against the state through Commissioner Vance of the dispensary.

Mr. Barber has prepared a long, careful and exhaustive argument, along law lines and will make a strong appeal for the state. He will be opposed by Mr. J. P. Kennedy Bryan, of Charleston, who has made for himself quite a reputation for having won the McDonald case, in which the constitutionality of the dispensary law was questioned so far as the prevention of the introduction of whisky for personal use was concerned. The suit in question aims to establish the validity of the dispensary law in prohibiting the storage in the state of whisky belonging to non-residents of the state to be sold in original packages through agents. Or in a very few words, the decision of the United States supreme court is asked upon the fact whether or not the dispensary law violates the interstate commerce law in the particular stated. The battle will attract wide-spread interest, not only on account of the brilliant personality of the attorneys on both sides, but also because the outcome is of vital interest to the dispensary law which is being watched by the people of other states, who want to legislate liquor in this or some similar way.

I CAN'T GO YET.

Owing to the fact that I have promised to meet a number of my customers at a specified time to receipt for money due on last year's account, it is impossible for me to be present at the grand rally looking to the cessation of rowdyism in Cuba, for as the old maxim contends for "business before pleasure," and since it is not well to break a business engagement for every trivial matter that presents itself to our fancy, we assure our friends that we are patiently waiting their coming, and their early rush will be a potent signal to our going to the front.

Stand to your promises boys, come quick and pay your accounts, and don't stand as a barrier between me and my country and thus prevent me from being one among the first to the front. I have promised you that I would wait until you had gotten your receipts—and remember that I will do it; but the responsibility of keeping this soldier out of the field is with you!

OUR Seed Irish Potatoes are in at last, and we are, of course, prepared to supply the demand so long as the supply lasts. We have the following varieties: Early Rose, Peerless and Burbank. We also have Onion Sets and are selling them at old prices notwithstanding the recent sharp advance.

CABBAGE FROM GERMANY.
We have just received—today—a shipment of Cabbage from Germany. It is said to be superior to any other. We don't speak from experience, as we have not been to dinner yet.

KINGAN'S RELIABLE.
Several days ago we ordered a pair of Kingan's Reliable Pork Sausage. It went like hot cakes, and the cry was for more. We ordered a larger supply next time and it is in. You should not fail to try it—that is, if you like fresh, properly-ground and seasonable pork sausage. Price, 10 cents a pound.

IF YOU PRESERVE HAVE RUN OUT, you should try a few pounds of our California Evaporated Peaches or Apples. Ride a MONARCH And Keep In Front.
It's the Leader; but Not to the Repair Shop.

ONCE again it is our pleasure to present the claims of the MONARCH BICYCLES to the people of this section, and we do so with the assurance that the wheel we offer this year is far ahead of ANY other wheels that are, or will be, offered in this section in durability, appearance or riding qualities. The record of the MONARCH in the bicycle world is a matter of history. Its manufacturers have never attempted to make the CHEAPEST wheel, but their aim has always been to excel in light-running qualities and durability, and this year they are in line on prices with all wheels of recognized value.

The DEFIANCE Wheel
Is made by the Monarch people, and are equal in every particular—durability, beauty, style and finish—to any wheel sold on this market except the MONARCH regardless of price. We are positive of this, and the record of competitors is as an open book in this section.

The THOMAS Wheel
Is our latest addition, and, of course, has no record here; but that need not deter the most wary from buying as they are backed by the guarantee of a company that is worth $5,000,000, to be everything that is claimed for them, and the claim is that they are the peer of any on the market, price considered.

Now About Prices.
We will not quote prices in this announcement, but will simply say that we will meet competition regardless of its source or quality.

We Will Have No Silent partners who have either bought wheels of us at less than others, or who get a commission on every sale they may influence by talking "disinterestedly" of our wheels, and cause the prospective purchaser to believe that he is the person whose interests are being looked after instead of the agent. We refer to ALL Monarch and Defiance riders.

We Sold 12 Wheels
Last season, and the total cost on all of them for repairs did not amount to $4. Ride a Monarch and keep in front, and away from the repair shop.

DID YOU SAY ORGAN?
WELL; if that is what you want, I can sell you the best ever offered in this section—the WILCOX & WHITE. I have declined the agency for a dozen others, and think it best to take a good one and stick to it, as I have done for over 12 years with this organ.

I CAN SAY
The same for the LESTER PIANO. It is strictly first-class in every respect and fully warranted. I have sold quite a number to some of the best judges in Yorkville and other places.
